ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE

OF

THE GREAT EXHIBITION IN DUBLIN.

IN PREPARATION, FOR MONTHLY ISSUE, IN THE ART-JOURNAL,
A Series of Wood Engravings of the best and most prominent Articles in Art
Manufacture to be exhibited in the Dublin Exhibition, which Opens on the 12th of May, 1853.

THIS Catalogue will, in its leading features, resemble that which illustrated the Great Exhibition of 1851; except that to subscribers to the Art-Journal no extra price will be charged for it, although extra pages will be given, and a very large extra charge incurred to represent the collection worthily. The first part of this Catalogue will appear with the number to be issued on the 31st of March, and the other parts will appear in May, June, and July, when the whole will be collected into a VOLUME, which volume may be separately purchased.

In the Art-Journal, however, the collection will be separately paged, so that those who please may detach it, and bind in into a volume distinct from the Art-Journal. Each part will consist of sixteen pages, to contain between eighty and one hundred engravings on wood, and the whole will contain illustrations to the extent of between 400 and 500. The selections will be made, generally, of objects the most suggestive as well as the most beautiful; and the volume will, no doubt, be regarded as an additional text-book for the manufacturer and the Artisan, and an "authority" for those who desire to procure the most graceful and useful of the productions of Art-manufacture.

MESSRS. WILLIAM CURRY AND CO. are now receiving the names of SUBSCRIBERS to the above Work, and would suggest the desirableness of parties securing early copies, thus warranting the possession of good impressions.

SUNDAY READING FOR CHRISTIAN FAMILIES.

CONDUCTED BY

JOHN KITTO, D.D., F.S.A.

IN the hours not devoted to public worship and to the reading of the Scriptures there are intervals which must in some manner be filled up, if the Sabbath is not to be regarded as "a weariness," and which cannot properly be filled up by ordinary pursuits or recreations, or even from the resources of general literature.

The object of "Sunday Reading for Christian Families" is, therefore, to supply a felt want—to be useful—to afford instruction, and to furnish aid, under the Divine blessing, in building up the intelligent Christian character in knowledge and godliness. To these ends it must be read; to be read it must be readable and interesting; and to insure these essential conditions, the most effectual means will be adopted.

Each Number will contain, so far as can be embraced within its limits, A SHORT COMMENTARY UPON ONE OF THE LESSONS FOR THE DAY, and continuing in order; ARTICLES ON SCRIPTURE HISTORY, GEOGRAPHY, MANNERS AND CUSTOMS, NATURAL HISTORY, TRAVELS, &c.—all designed to form interesting elucidations of various portions of Holy Scripture; A NARRATIVE OF THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF SOME REMARKABLE SCRIPTURE PERSONAGE; SHORT BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES AND ANECDOTES OF THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN EMINENTLY DISTINGUISHED IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH FOR THEIR SERVICES, HOLY LIVES, OR DEVOTED DEATHS; A PAPER ON RELATIVE AND SOCIAL DUTIES; SACRED POETRY; with A SELECTION OF MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES, instructive and edifying. The writers, while traversing all the fields of knowledge for tribute to the Bible, and for nutriment on the "day of rest," will be deeply conscious of the responsibility they have undertaken, and will anxiously endeavour that "HOLINESS TO THE LORD" shall be plainly inscribed upon all the offerings they present to "Christian Families" for "Sunday Reading."

Each Number will be printed in a clear and beautiful type, cast expressly with a design for this work, and will contain Twenty-four pages of closely arranged matter. Sold also in Monthly Parts.
